

Curriculum Vitae, M.Sc. Stephan Goerigk

EMPLOYMENT/RESEARCH-RELATED EXPERIENCE

2017 - present	Scientific research assistant, „Research on Psychotherapy“, Clinic for Psychiatry and Psychotherapy, Ludwig-Maximilians-University Munich
2017 - present	Scientific staff and lecturer for statistics and psychological research methods, Hochschule Fresenius, Munich
2017 - present	Psychologist at the protected psychiatric acute and admission unit for women and men (unit C2), Clinic for Psychiatry and Psychotherapy, Ludwig-Maximilians-University Munich
2016-2017	Scientific research assistant, Chair for Psychological Methods and Assessment, Ludwig-Maximilians-University, Munich
2015-2016	Scientific research assistant, Chair for General and Experimental Psychology, Ludwig-Maximilians-University, Munich
2014-2015	Psychological support, Asperger-syndrome in educational context, Austrian Autism Foundation, Vienna

ACADEMIC TRAINING

2017 - present	Ph.D. at the Chair for Psychological Methods and Assessment, Ludwig-Maximilians-University, Munich
2017 - present	Training in Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CIP, Munich)
2016-2017	Master of Science, Clinical Psychology and Cognitive Neuroscience, Ludwig-Maximilians-University, Munich
2011-2015	Bachelor of Science, Psychology, University of Vienna

RESEARCH INTEREST

- Predictive modeling of therapy outcomes of psychotherapy and brain stimulation interventions using machine learning methods.
- Optimizing of the psychological-psychiatric assessment for early retirement
- Social exclusion/childhood maltreatment and the influence on behavior in social situations in patients with Borderline Personality Disorder and Chronic Depression